

THE

ELECTRIFIED WORLD

Balancing your inner and outer world.

Could your environment be decreasing your energy field allowing in for dis-ease?

Our bodies are amazingly complex and wonderful. Electrical impulses control our brain, muscles, heartbeat, and other bodily functions. As a result, EMFs are impacting us because man made electricity affects our body's own electrical system.

Over the past few years, and secretly for decades, scientific and medical evidence has shown conclusively that the low frequency pulsed radio and microwave frequencies are causing significant damage to our cells resulting in extreme increases in autism, heart irregularities, brain wave changes, cancer and generational fertility destruction in males but even more significantly in females.

The most prominent changes due to Wi-Fi radiation though is with our children and teenagers due to their developing immune systems and thinner skeletal structures.
